

The question being on concurring in said amendment, the House unanimously refused to concur in said amendment, and the Senate was informed thereof by message.

Also, a message transmitting engrossed resolutions concerning taxation, revenue, &c. ; which were read the first time and passed.

Said resolutions were read the second time.

Mr. Leach moved to amend, by inserting after the word "people," in the first resolution, the word "only," and called for the yeas and nays thereon ; which amendment was negatived—yeas 6, nays 70.

Those who voted in the affirmative, were—
